

---

Kieran Nolan was appointed Vice President for AT&T's Construction and Engineering organization in January 2009. In this role he is responsible for the engineering, planning and implementation for AT&T's wired and wireless networks for the 13 western states in the United States.

Past positions include Vice President and General Manger for the Los Angeles Market area, Vice President Broadband, Uverse and Dish Marketing in San Antonio, Texas, and Vice President for Corporate Strategy and Planning. In this role, he was responsible for developing strategic plans for SBC's 13 state enterprise corporation and was focused on SBC's move into a full IP environment. From 1999 to 2004, Kieran was Vice President for Service Operations South, SBC West.

Kieran has extensive experience in development of wireline, wireless and out of territory applications. He created Pacific Bell's out-of-franchise organization (CLEC) in 1996 and led the effort to enter non-traditional Pacific Bell markets throughout California. In 1993, he was appointed as an inaugural leader of the newly formed Health Care Market Group, responsible for sales and new applications development in California. In this capacity, he worked extensively on advancement of data networks for Health Care clients and development of regional Health Information Networks. He previously held positions as Regional Marketing Manager for data communications and data sales, Engineering Manager, Operations Manager, Capital Budgeting Director and Technical Support Manager. He has been with AT&T since December 1980 in various management leadership positions.

Kieran received his B.A. in Economics from UCLA in 1981 and his M.B.A. from Pepperdine University in 1989. He is a graduate of USC's Management Development Program in Health Care and has served on the Advisory Board for USC's Management Development Program in Health Care. He was previously on the Board of Directors for St. Vincent's Medical Center, Junior Achievement Los Angeles, Los Angeles Boy Scouts and an advisory Board for Loyola High School. He is a past board member of Akimbo Inc. He is currently on the Board of Regents for Holy Family College Prep in Glendale, is a member of the National Health Foundation Board and is a member of the UCLA Extension Dean's Advisory Board. In addition, Kieran held the position of Adjunct Professor of Finance and International Finance at Woodbury University in the 1990's.