

HONORS AND UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

Academics

In the Commons

What's Offered?

Workshops

The College of Letters and Science offers workshops which will provide students with an understanding of skills and techniques so that personal and academic success at UCLA can be achieved. Workshops include:

Time Management	Alternatives to Medical School
Effective Note Taking Skills	Preparing for Law School
Preparing for Midterms/Finals	Careers in Business
Study Skills	Careers in Education
Preparing for Medical School	Coping with Academic Stress

And More!!!

Academic Counseling

Have a question? Drop in and get all of your queries answered in Covell Commons, Room 203. Drop in counseling is available during the school year in the afternoons Monday – Friday.

Covell Tutorials

The Covell Tutorial Composition, ESL and Math/Science tutoring labs offer individual and group assistance in selected English and introductory math/science courses. Covell Tutorials for Student Athletes provides individual and small group tutoring for intercollegiate student athletes. The staffs are trained undergraduate peer tutors who have been chosen based on academic excellence and/or were recommended by faculty. Appointments are required (students must request Math/Science tutoring during first full week of each quarter) except for drop-in tutoring offered M-Th, 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. To make an appointment at the Composition or ESL lab, call (310) 206-1491 Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Friday 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., or come to the Composition/ESL lab in 228 Covell Commons.

For more information contact Academics in the Commons

Workshop schedule: www.college.ucla.edu/up/workshops

To sign up for workshops: email workshops@college.ucla.edu or call (310) 206-1493.