HONORS AND UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS
Academics
In the Commons

What's Offered?

Workshops
The College of Letters and Science offers workshops which will provide students with an understanding of skills and techniques so that personal and academic success at UCLA can be achieved. Workshops include:

- Time Management
- Effective Note Taking Skills
- Preparing for Midterms/Finals
- Study Skills
- Preparing for Medical School
- Alternatives to Medical School
- Preparing for Law School
- Careers in Business
- Careers in Education
- Coping with Academic Stress

And More!!!

Academic Counseling
Have a question? Drop in and get all of your queries answered in Covel Commons, Room 203. Drop in counseling is available during the school year in the afternoons Monday – Friday.

Covel Tutorials
The Covel Tutorial Composition, ESL and Math/Science tutoring labs offer individual and group assistance in selected English and introductory math/science courses. Covel Tutorials for Student Athletes provides individual and small group tutoring for intercollegiate student athletes. The staffs are trained undergraduate peer tutors who have been chosen based on academic excellence and/or were recommended by faculty. Appointments are required (students must request Math/Science tutoring during first full week of each quarter) except for drop-in tutoring offered M-Th, 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. To make an appointment at the Composition or ESL lab, call (310) 206-1491 Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Friday 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., or come to the Composition/ESL lab in 228 Covel Commons.

For more information contact Academics in the Commons
Workshop schedule: www.college.ucla.edu/up/workshops
To sign up for workshops: email workshops@college.ucla.edu or call (310) 206-1493.